Opening Hymn (blue #248) “You Are Before Me, Lord”

Song of Lamentation

Is it nothing to you, all who pass by?
Look and see if there is any sorrow like my sorrow.
Which was brought upon me,
which the Lord inflicted on the day of his fierce anger.
For these things I weep;
my eyes flow with tears;
for a comforter is far from me,
one to revive my courage;
Remember my affliction and my bitterness,
the wormwood and the gall!
The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases,
his mercies never come to an end;
They are new every morning;
great is your faithfulness.
‘The Lord is my portion,’ says my soul,
‘therefore I will hope in him.’
The Lord is good to those who wait for him,
to the soul that seeks him.
It is good that we should wait quietly
for the salvation of the Lord.

It is good to bear the yoke in our youth;
to sit alone in silence when he has imposed it.

For the Lord will not reject forever;
though he causes grief, he will have compassion.

According to the abundance of his steadfast love;
for he does not willingly afflict or grieve anyone.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning is now and shall be for ever. Amen.
