

Celebrating the Joe R. Engle Organ Tenth Anniversary

2010–2011 Musical Offerings

---

THE JOE R. ENGLE CONCERT

Thursday, October 28, 2010
7:30 p.m., Miller Chapel

Princeton Seminary welcomes back Joan Lippincott as we celebrate the tenth anniversary of the Joe R. Engle Organ's installation in Miller Chapel. Paul Fritts, organ builder, will be on hand following the concert to talk about the process of building the organ for Princeton Seminary and to offer a retrospective on its success and impact.

---

THE DAVID A. WEADON MEMORIAL CONCERT

Sunday, February 13, 2011
4:00 p.m., Miller Chapel

Alan Morrison, organist, will perform J.S. Bach's Clavier-Übung III, a collection of Bach's most robust settings of Lutheran chorales framed by the famous Prelude and Fugue in E-flat Major. Alan Morrison is head of the Organ Department at The Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia. This concert is underwritten in part by the David A. Weadon Memorial Trust and is cosponsored with Westminster Choir College of Rider University, a sister institution of Princeton Seminary and Morrison's alma mater.

---

CAROLS OF MANY NATIONS

Wednesday, December 8, 2010
3:00 p.m., 6:30 p.m., and 8:30 p.m.

A service of readings, choral anthems, and congregational carols led by the Princeton Seminary Choir and international students and staff of the Seminary.

---

ORGAN MUSIC AND PSALM SINGING IN THE CALVINIST TRADITION

Friday, April 15, 2011
7:45 p.m., Miller Chapel

Organist Christiaan Teeuwsen will lead us on an odyssey of music for organ and congregation as it developed in the Dutch Calvinist tradition. Teeuwsen studied organ at the Sweelinck Conservatory in Amsterdam and is professor of music at Redeemer University College in Hamilton, Ontario. This concert is held in conjunction with the Abraham Kuyper Center for Public Theology conference, Calvinism and Culture, April 14–16.

(For more information or to register for this conference, email kuyper.center@ptsem.edu.)

For more information about any of these events, contact the [Chapel Office](mailto:Chapel Office) at 609.497.7890 or visit www.ptsem.edu.

All events take place in Miller Chapel on the campus of the Princeton Theological Seminary and are open to the public, free of charge.

Martin Tel, Director of Music • Chi Yi Chen, Choral Associate

Celebrating the Joe R. Engle Organ Tenth Anniversary

2010–2011 Musical Offerings

THE JOE R. ENGLE CONCERT

Thursday, October 28, 2010

7:30 p.m., Miller Chapel

Princeton Seminary welcomes back Joan Lippincott as we celebrate the tenth anniversary of the Joe R. Engle Organ's installation in Miller Chapel. Paul Fritts, organ builder, will be on hand following the concert to talk about the process of building the organ for Princeton Seminary and to offer a retrospective on its success and impact.

THE DAVID A. WEADON MEMORIAL CONCERT

Sunday, February 13, 2011

4:00 p.m., Miller Chapel

Alan Morrison, organist, will perform J.S. Bach's Clavier-Übung III, a collection of Bach's most robust settings of Lutheran chorales framed by the famous Prelude and Fugue in E-flat Major. Alan Morrison is head of the Organ Department at The Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia. This concert is underwritten in part by the David A. Weadon Memorial Trust and is cosponsored with Westminster Choir College of Rider University, a sister institution of Princeton Seminary and Morrison's alma mater.

CAROLS OF MANY NATIONS

Wednesday, December 8, 2010

3:00 p.m., 6:30 p.m., and 8:30 p.m.

A service of readings, choral anthems, and congregational carols led by the Princeton Seminary Choir and international students and staff of the Seminary.

ORGAN MUSIC AND PSALM SINGING IN THE CALVINIST TRADITION

Friday, April 15, 2011

7:45 p.m., Miller Chapel

Organist Christiaan Teeuwssen will lead us on an odyssey of music for organ and congregation as it developed in the Dutch Calvinist tradition. Teeuwssen studied organ at the Sweelinck Conservatory in Amsterdam and is professor of music at Redeemer University College in Hamilton, Ontario. This concert is held in conjunction with the Abraham Kuyper Center for Public Theology conference, Calvinism and Culture, April 14–16.

(For more information or to register for this conference, email kuyper.center@ptsem.edu.)

For more information about any of these events, contact the [Chapel Office](mailto:Chapel Office) at 609.497.7890 or visit www.ptsem.edu.

All events take place in Miller Chapel on the campus of the Princeton Theological Seminary and are open to the public, free of charge.

Martin Tel, Director of Music • Chi Yi Chen, Choral Associate