First Presbyterian Church of Southold (www.fpcsouthold.org) seeks an Assistant Pastor for our growing, active congregation, one of the oldest in continuous practice in the nation. We seek an ordained or ordainable minister of any denomination for this position, targeted for roughly 30 hours/week. Duties include preaching approximately six to twelve times annually, sharing in pastoral care, leading our mission and outreach activities, and supervising our Christian Education program. The ideal candidate excels at coordinating tasks and empowering others, and is collegial and collaborative, a strong administrator, dynamic team player, and progressive thinker with creative ideas. Prior experience preferred but not required. Retirees welcome to apply. Compensation is negotiable, commensurate with experience. Please email resume, cover letter and up to three sample sermons to Search Committee Secretary Donnell Brown at donnellbee@yahoo.com. Candidate information packet available upon request.

Mt. Pleasant Presbyterian is a large, vibrant, healthy church and is looking for a “Director for Every Member in Ministry”. It is a position that focuses on assimilation. We have huge numbers of folks between the ages of 20-40 at our church who have not been plugged into ministry/leadership/faith formation opportunities outside of Sunday worship. The person filling this position would focus her/his attention to creating a plan/system for integrating folks of all ages into ministry.

The search team is looking at candidates who have had at least 2 years of ministry experience and to be honest, the more mature & people-oriented the better (since this person will have to work with MANY staff members and church members representing a variety of ministries).

If you feel you would make an excellent candidate who may want to move South (or not, because you never know where God may send you!), please forward your resume, cover letter, and references along to the chair of our wonderful search committee, Diane Thompson dcliffe@hotmail.com.
Tennessee, Chattanooga

Rivermont Presbyterian Church
3319 Hixson Pike.
Chattanooga, TN 37415
http://www.rivermontpc.com/

Rivermont’s vision for ministry is the body of Christ, guided by scripture, by serving those in need, nurturing one another in the faith, and praising God through worship, missions, and service.

Rivermont has a goal to nurture and to provide education for all stages of life. The candidate’s primary responsibility will be to develop a strong youth program, which will be the vital link between a robust children’s program and ongoing adult education.

In addition the Associate Pastor will facilitate the inclusion of youth within the general body of programs within the church. The Associate Pastor will work with the Head of Staff and the director of Congregational Life to develop a “tribal” mentality of inter-generational relationships within our congregation and our missions in the community.

As part of the Pastoral team, the candidate will build bridges within the congregation and within the community, enabling Rivermont to fulfill its responsibilities and missions.
