The Church at Litchfield Park, an independent, interdenominational community church in Litchfield Park, AZ is looking to add an associate pastor of children and youth ministry to its staff. They are seeking a candidate with a M.Div. from an accredited theological school who is ordained or a candidate for ordination in a mainline Christian denomination with experience in children’s and youth education to serve this dynamic congregation. Qualified applicants should submit a cover letter and resume to info@churchatlitchfieldpark.org.
The Church by the Sea is a nondenominational church formed in 1954 in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida. They are seeking a full-time pastor who can inspire, invite, excite and maintain a growing congregation. Personal attributes such as an outgoing personality, a warm and inviting demeanor, and a compassionate spirit would serve members well. The major responsibilities of the pastor will be to conduct weekly church services as well as preside at weddings, baptisms, funerals and monthly communion. They are looking for someone to help build the congregation, especially with younger members, and pastoral care and counseling is a high priority. The pastor will oversee the church’s financial administrator, office administrator and music director and will be the moderator of the session. The pastor is also expected to conduct weekly instruction to the children at CBTS preschool. The Church by the Sea is attended by people of all ages with a current membership of 125. The church consists of founding members and new members as well as snowbirds. There is a strong music ministry which includes the choir, organist and soloists. It is a church that believes strongly in mission and participates in serving the homeless community, the Angel Tree program, Seafarers House, St. Lawrence Chapel shelter, the Shepherd’s Way shelter and many others. They also reach beyond their borders to a mission in Chiapas, Mexico.

First Congregational Church is seeking a full-time salaried assistant pastor to minister to the needs of young adults and youth. FCC is in the process of expanding its ministry to more fully meet the needs of these two groups. The assistant pastor will enhance and nurture creative, visionary, and authentic young adult and youth communities that are invited to love God and live genuine Christian lives. The focus will be on young adults between the ages of 18-35 including singles, single parents, and young married; and on youth between the ages of 11-18, including middle school and senior high students. The assistant pastor will interact and develop a meaningful relationship with the church staff. This will include fully supporting and participating in church-wide programs in conjunction with the staff. Ability and aptitude in leadership and planning of contemporary worship is also desired, but not required.
The Director of Youth Ministries is responsible to oversee and lead the youth ministry of Cornerstone Presbyterian Church. This ministry exists to present Jesus Christ to middle and high school students in the greater Columbia area, to instruct them in the scriptures, disciple them in their walk with Christ, and to equip them for service in his kingdom as mature followers of Christ. The youth ministry exists to supplement, support and assist (not replace) parents in their covenantal responsibility in raising their children to follow Christ, and to reach out to and engage non-believing families with the good news of Jesus. This position provides a great opportunity for a Christ-loving, hard-working, creative person to pursue their calling to youth ministry in an environment that will provide freedom to sculpt and shape the future of not only a youth ministry but the lives of the next generation.
