The Presbyterian Campus Ministries at Duke, Inc. is supported by ten local PCUSA churches, one local UCC congregation, New Hope Presbytery and the Synod of the Mid-Atlantic. Their mission is to bear witness to the Gospel of Jesus Christ in the Reformed traditions of the PCUSA and UCC denominations. The mission of Westminster Fellowship at Duke is to gather students in an open-minded, open-hearted Christian community, providing a spiritual home where students enjoy and care for each other, Duke, Durham, and the world. Major responsibilities of the campus minister include: ministering to the spiritual well being of university students and employees; providing worship opportunities; initiating times to meet informally with individual students, as well as programming and administration duties. The complete CIF can be found on the PCUSA website.
Shenandoah University invites applications for a full-time benefited position as Dean of Spiritual Life and Director of Institute for Church Professions. The ideal candidate will have a master’s degree in theology, and preferably a doctorate degree. Applicants should be passionate about developing young adults as leaders for the church and world; be well prepared for teaching, mentoring and leading; have demonstrated the ability to creatively lead worship which embraces ancient as well as emerging forms of worship and communicate effectively through preaching with students, faculty and members of the larger community; be able to clearly articulate the Christian faith while being authentically respectful of various religious traditions; be skilled in building healthy staff relationships and be globally conscious. For consideration, submit a cover letter of interest addressed to the Bishop of Residence, along with a resume, and contact information for three references to Shenandoah University-DSL, Office of Human Resources, at the above address.

CHURCH POSITIONS – BAPTIST

First Baptist Church is looking for a creative and leader to join their staff as the Associate Pastor of Worship and Discipleship. They seek a committed follower of Jesus Christ who is passionate about leading others to experience God through worship and mobilizing the body of Christ for ministry in their growing church and community, and throughout the world. The AP will work with the senior pastor to develop a God centered worship service approach to Sunday morning worship, lead the congregation in praise and worship by participating in, and giving leadership to, the church worship team, and lead, oversee and participate in a comprehensive strategy that mobilizes and equips adults for ministry. Please send a detailed resume including ministry experience, education, ordination, personal information, references and a media source demonstrating worship leadership to associatesearch@fbcelgin.org.
Poplar Springs Baptist Church, affiliated with the BGAV, is seeking an individual with experience to develop an energetic young adult ministry, lead the youth program, and oversee the Christian Life Center and Coffeehouse Ministry. The primary responsibility of this person is to develop and manage two dynamic areas of ministry designed to attract young adults and youth with the focus aimed at generating spiritual growth and fellowship. This person will also oversee the operation of the life center, working under the supervision of the pastor. Applicants should have a genuine love for young people and an ability to maintain a good rapport with them, organizational and administrative abilities, as well as Bible study and musical skills. Send your resume to MYAY Search Committee at the above address.

Through a partnership with the Lilly Endowment, Hyde Park Union Church offers a two-year, full-time, paid residency in pastoral ministry as further intentional and practical preparation for ministry. Residents will receive broad training and experience in all aspects of professional ministry, will work closely with the pastoral staff, and will have on-going exposure to one another’s work. Throughout the two-year residency, the resident will spend half of his or her time in worship leadership, preaching, church administration and pastoral care. The church has also identified three specific areas of pastoral development: a church-based urban hospital chaplaincy; intentional multicultural ministry with adults; and work with children and families. The resident will spend half of his or her time in consecutive eight-month rotations in each of these areas. Applications are now being accepted and can be found on the church website.
Grace Fellowship Chapel, a geographically, socio-economically, generationally diverse church located in north center New Jersey is seeking a full-time Pastor/Director of Student Ministries. The primary role is to continue to build upon the current core group of over 20 active students. The Youth Pastor/Director will be responsible for the spiritual development process (teaching, mentoring, building youth as leaders, investing in the next generation) of students between grades 5-12. A secondary, but critical emphasis will be on college age students. There are several commuter and housed college campuses in the surrounding areas and there is a great need to provide a relevant and welcoming environment for these students. A third emphasis will be on training adult volunteers and parents for assisting and aiding in the growth of the students. It is critical that the Youth Pastor be able to relate to parent needs and concerns and view their role as a partner with the parents in the development of the students both socially and spiritually. Interested candidates should send resumes through email to info@gfcnj.com.

For nearly nine years Church of the Servant, through funds provided by the Lilly Endowment, Inc., has participated in “Transition into Ministry,” a pastoral residency program which provides “real life” training and experience in pastoral ministry in the local church. The church is now recruiting for their fifth group of residents, who will begin their program in August, 2011. The residency, which provides full salary and benefits, runs for two years and is designed for graduating seniors who meet the requirements for ordination in their own denomination or in the Christian Reformed Church in North America. Brochures about the position are available in the Office of Student Relations & Senior Placement, 204 Templeton Hall. To apply, send a copy of your vitae, your seminary transcript, a one-two page essay on why you wish to participate in the program, and two recommendations (one from a faculty member and one from a recent supervising pastor) to the Rev. Dale Cooper at the above address. The application deadline is March 31.

This person will also win, teach the Bible to, counsel, disciple, laugh and cry with, and above all, love teenagers. If interested, contact Pastor Dan Clark at dclark@barbeepc.org.
First Presbyterian Church, Scottsbluff, NE, is pleased to announce the formation of a new pastoral residency program beginning in the summer/fall of 2011. First Presbyterian is a 110-year old congregation located roughly half way between Denver and Rapid City. In providing an intensive two-year, guided and mentored immersion into many aspects of ministry, as well as to the decision-making common to leadership in churches smaller than the corporate variety, it is the church’s prayer that they might be able to offer both the gift of oversight and experience to new pastors, and ultimately the gift of reflective, experienced, semi-seasoned leadership to the larger, connected church. This is an ordainable position. If you would like more information, or would like to apply, forward a letter of introduction, along with your PIF (if available) to: Pastoral Residency Program, at the above address.

Union Presbyterian Church is seeking an energetic individual willing to accept the challenges of a church in need of redevelopment. Union is a congregation of approximately 90 very caring members who are in need of a pastor who can help revitalize the church and develop a youth program. Union has an excellent physical facility with dedicated lay leadership, located in a suburban location in southwestern New Jersey. Currently this call is for a three-quarter time position but could expand to full-time in the future. The complete CIF is on the PCUSA website.

FPC faithfully serves and glorifies God, welcoming all to Christ’s ministry through worship, service and spiritual growth. They are blessed with members who lovingly share their wide variety of gifts with the church. Members are in education, are talented musicians, and specialize in building design, and other professions. They are seeking a pastor to: develop and lead meaningful worship services, support the church’s vision, inspire evangelism, officiate at weddings, funerals, baptisms, etc., provide organizational and administrative leadership, partner with the church staff to plan and implement educational and musical programs, encourage stewardship, and be involved in community projects. The complete CIF can be found on the PCUSA website. Representatives of the PNC will be on campus on Thursday, March 17 to speak with students who are certified ready to receive a call and interested in their pastoral position. To schedule an interview, email carol.belles@ptsem.edu.
The Presbyterian Church of Lawrenceville is a welcoming community, called by God to be followers of Jesus Christ, fed by the Word of God, and sent by the Spirit into the world to live lives of stewardship and service. The AP will join a collegial team whose members listen to and learn from one another, guiding the congregation to discern God’s vision and call. The AP will oversee, supervise, plan and develop the youth and young adult programs, and when appropriate, will offer pastoral support to youth and their families. The AP will be integral to WINK (Worship in a New Key). S/he will work with the Head of Staff and other staff on developing and planning for all aspects of WINK. S/he will preach monthly at WINK services and at least twice per year at the traditional worship service. The AP will maintain significant contact with young adult members of the church who are in college, the military, the workplace, or who have just graduated from college. S/he will offer pastoral support to young adult members and their families when appropriate. The AP will participate in weekly staff meetings. For information or to apply email thomas744@mac.com.

The Brick Church in the City of New York is seeking two associate pastors or directors for their educational ministries. They are looking for individuals who are inspiring educators, especially with adults who are seeking to increase their theological and biblical awareness and deepen their faith in Jesus Christ. Candidates should have a contagious joy in their faith, with sound intellectual and theological grounding in the Reformed Presbyterian tradition. Also needed is the ability to coordinate and supervise programs for children, youth and their families, a willingness to lead with innovation, work collaboratively, and possess strong organizational and administrative abilities. The two positions will preside over such ministries as: Sunday church school, adult education, middle school pioneer programs, 7th/8th grade and senior high youth groups, confirmation class, mission trips, and service projects. The complete CIFs can be found on the PCUSA website. Contact information for the APNC chair is: Charles C. Higgins, apnc@brickchurch.org.
The two associate pastors at Fifth Avenue Church will have regular responsibilities in weekly worship, general pastoral care duties, and other administrative duties assigned by the senior pastor. These two associates will also divide the following: adult education (work to develop and promote and coordinate an engaging and faithful program of adult Christian education and formation); family matters (work to develop and promote a robust family ministries program that encourages children and youth to grow in faith and provides support and resources for parents); next (work to develop and promote a vital young adults ministry in the context of a multigenerational congregation); outreach (work with lay leaders to develop and promote new and existing outreach ministries); and pastoral care (shepherd and provide pastoral care to the congregation). The complete CIF can be found on the church website.

Westminster Presbyterian Church is an urban church seeking a solo designated pastor. The staff includes a part-time secretary, maintenance person and organist. There are presently 67 members on the rolls with 30 typically in worship and 5 in church school. The congregation is primarily comprised of senior citizens. There is a very active food pantry that serves between 40-60 families. There is a weekly Bible study that meets at noon on Tuesdays and a monthly Bible study that meets on a Sunday morning. There is a very active Board of Deacons. They are seeking a young, energetic pastor who takes seriously the call of Jesus to be a “fisher of people.” They want someone who is willing to go out of the church building and make connections in the community around the church. The priorities of the congregation are: proclamation of the Word, spiritual development of members, evangelism and work with youth. If you are interested, send a copy of your resume and a video tape of yourself leading worship to Bonnie Fuller in care of the church office. Include compensation requirements as well.
The Associate Pastor will provide leadership and plan, develop, and supervise DCPC’s campus ministry program and DCPC’s ministry to and with middle and high school youth. The AP will primarily minister to Davidson College students as they seek a full Christian life but also to faculty and staff. The AP will engage with students in Westminster Fellowship, Bible study, and other activities, some of which occur off campus. The AP will work with the Campus Ministry Committee and the college chaplain, and will establish relationships with campus representatives from other denominations/faiths. The AP will also reach out to DCPC members who are attending college elsewhere. In youth ministry, the AP will encourage young people as they grow in their faith through Bible study, confirmation, retreats, service projects, and mission trips. The AP will be responsible for planning youth group activities, youth Sunday School classes and confirmation classes with added collaboration from the Christian Ed committee and the DCE. The AP will be a mentor, spiritual guide, friend, counselor and role model. The complete CIF can be found on the PCUSA website.

The Associate Pastor will be responsible for the broad scope of family ministry and for the development of a vibrant young adult ministry. Currently, the church has a burgeoning young family population with a history of engaged fellowship and spiritual development. Responsibilities include leading existing efforts for this group as well as developing and overseeing new initiatives for families of all ages. The AP will also be the lead staff resource for community missions and will coordinate supporting outreach programs. Another major responsibility will be administering many aspects of congregational life and the development of lay leadership. The AP will oversee the current Director of Congregational Life who is charged with responsibilities related to membership, fellowship, member involvement, and small groups. The AP will participate regularly in the conduct of worship services, will preach at least six times per year, and will share in the responsibilities of pastoral care. The complete CIF can be found on the PCUSA website.
Westminster Presbyterian Church is seeking an Associate Pastor for Discipleship. While Westminster is a growing congregation, attendance in the educational opportunities does not correspond with participation in worship and outreach. To be successful in this position, the associate pastor needs to be excited about doing what it takes to encourage members and visitors to be engaged in programs that deepen their faith. The AP will oversee Christian education programs; recruit, train and support volunteers; coordinate and staff student ministries; and provide support to current small group ministries. The AP will also participate in pastoral care by forming relationships with parishioners through visitation, shared meals, hospital visitations and funerals; and the candidate will serve as staff liaison to the Board of Deacons.

Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church is offering an Associate Pastor for Youth, their Families and College Ministry. The main responsibilities of this AP position are: lead youth into deeper relationships with God through Jesus Christ; empower lay leaders and youth to multiply impact of associate pastor’s efforts; grow relational ministries; identify and grow opportunities to transform youth into Christian disciples, recognizing and respecting different individual values; and to manage and direct youth staff and lay leadership professionally and faithfully. The AP will have responsibilities in the areas of youth ministries, education, college ministry, technology and on the pastoral team. The complete CIF is on the PCUSA website.

The Pastoral Immersion Program at Broad Street Ministries offers an uncommon opportunity for vocational discernment and formation for ministries. BSM believes that the challenges the changing church faces requires new kinds of pastors and theological leaders. The Pastoral Immersion Program helps to meet that need by inviting talented seminary and post-seminary students with diverse gifts to spend a year learning the art of ministry in an urban context in and through the ministry of Jesus Christ, and in connection with BSM and her sister congregation Arch Street Presbyterian Church. A representative of BSM will be on campus on Thursday, March 17 to speak with students about this innovative program. If you would like an appointment or to see their flyer, email carol.belles@ptsem.edu.
Old Pine is a historic church in a modern city that honors its past while reaching out to the future. The congregation is filled with a diverse collection of professions. They are seeking a pastor who can hear the Lord through the Holy Spirit, interpret Scripture and teach theology, lead inspiring communal worship, and be sensitive to the needs and appreciative of the gifts of the congregation. Major responsibilities include leading worship, implementing the vision of Old Pine, offering new and creative approaches to the congregation’s ministry, being a spiritual leader, providing pastoral care, being involved in interfaith activities and involving members, especially children, in the worship services. The complete CIF is on the PCUSA website.

Hope Presbyterian Church is seeking a full time Director of Children and Youth Ministries. The responsibilities include developing, coordinating and maintaining all activities relating to children and youth from 2 years through grade 12. The ideal candidate must be called by God and be willing and able to lead children, youth, and their parents to grow in Christ. Maintaining a working relationship with pastors, music staff, church staff, Sunday School teachers, Children & Youth Commission, Children’s Council, and Youth Council is an important component of the job. Submit your resume and cover letter to Pastor Holly Hoppe at pastorhollyh@sbcglobal.net or by sending it to the above address.

The history of East Craftsbury Presbyterian Church dates back to 1816. It is located in an economically diverse area with changing demographics. New members are often retirees who have moved from other parts of the country. The congregation lives its faith in mission. Locally they support an assisted living center as well as members and local families who are in need. Wider church mission is supported financially and by personal involvement through presbytery, synod and general assembly. They see a pastor who will be responsible for worship, inspiration, spiritual life, education, witness and leadership. The successful candidate will be comfortable in a diverse community of farmers, families of longstanding membership, clergy, persons of diverse economic means, education and travel experience, recent retirees, those who live in poverty and struggle with life, and an aging community in the congregation and in the neighboring assisted living center. The complete CIF can be found on the PCUSA website.
Meadows Presbyterian Church, an intergenerational congregation located in Charlottesville, VA, is seeking to fill two director positions. The full time director of youth ministries will be an integral member of the professional staff. With the assistance and collaboration of the director of children’s ministry, and dedicated volunteers, the director will be responsible for teaching and leading the middle and high school-age youth into an ever-deepening relationship with God through Jesus Christ, as well as fellowship with one another and the entire church body. The part-time director of children’s ministries should be a dynamic leader who is sincerely excited and energized to action by his/her relationship with the living God in Jesus Christ, who has an undergraduate degree and/or experience in education. Charlottesville is a university community located in central Virginia, approximately 2 hours south of Washington, DC. Meadows Presbyterian is a 350 member congregation committed to a passion for Christ, compassion for one another, and a belief in the authority of Scripture.

New City is a high energy, creative program to and with youth in Jersey City that is unique in trusting teens with leadership. It is a joyful place filled with laughter and hard work, and has an excellent staff of dedicated adults who love children. New City is seeking to hire an exceptional candidate for the After School Center (ASC) Director position. The incoming Director will receive thorough training from the current Director, who will gradually transition into a new role. The Incoming Director will receive an ever-increasing level of responsibility until taking over the position completely. This position is one part administrative, one part incarnational, and one part creative. It involves careful attention to details, interaction with children and parents, and offering creative influence within the overall design and shape of the ASC. For a copy of the job description email carol.belles@ptsem.edu. To apply send a cover letter and resume to Deborah@newcitykids.com or to the above address.
