Sheffield’s congregation, in North Alabama Presbytery, on the Tennessee River, has dwindled considerably in size but not in heart. Although the new pastor would be in a part-time position (3-4 days/week), the congregation is active and involved. Currently the congregation hosts a weekly free dinner to the hungry in the area; funded by members and other interested folks in the area, as well as put on by both members and other volunteers. The church has also actively hosted tornado recovery teams from across the nation, who come for a week’s work doing clean-up, house repair and other necessary work for victims of tornadoes. The congregation also has an impressive choir which occasionally combines with other choirs for community events. The congregation needs someone who will first and foremost provide strong pastoral care to its aging membership, who willingly participates in its mission and activities, who carefully prepares for weekly worship and tends to administrative needs. The CIF is in approval process. For additional information, please contact the Rev. Toby Mueller at muellert04@yahoo.com. To be considered, please send your PIF to Lee Matthews, COM chair at l.gmatt@yahoo.com.

New York, New York Youth and Family Ministries Residency

Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church
Telephone: 212.288.8920
921 Madison Avenue
New York, NY 10021

This residency program is designed to teach recent graduates of M.Div. or MA Youth Ministry programs how to develop and implement a vision for youth and family ministries. A seminary education is critical in giving a ministry leader the theological knowledge necessary to guide the spiritual development of others. This residency is designed to complement that education by providing the opportunity to hone the practical experience and skills that are also critical in parish ministry: administration, working with lay leadership, working with budgets, engaging with session, and evangelism. The residency shall be one year (6/13-6/14), with an option to reapply for one additional year. Compensation includes a stipend of $2,000 a month plus a 1 bedroom apartment and utilities. To apply submit the following materials to mat@mapc.com by February 10: cover letter indicating interest and a brief description of your sense of call and your ministry background. Also describe any significant non-ministry related professional experience you may have had. Send a CV and two sample sermons, one narrative (for any age group), and one crafted for children or youth. Please specify the context of each sermon.

This two year residency program was established for seminary graduates who hold particular promise as pastors and wish to develop their ministerial skills in the context of a supportive multi-staff environment. The program has a threefold emphasis: missional, pastoral, and vocational. Responsibilities in the mission track include: being primary staff person to support, equip and resource all local outreach efforts; resource, empower, and educate the congregation regarding local issues of homelessness, poverty, hunger, and children at risk; and resource and assist church leaders in cultivating healthy relationships with local service agencies. In the pastoral track, the residency focuses on the various areas of ministry and the leadership skills essential to effective ordained ministry. This includes functions typically associated with pastoral ministry: weekly worship planning meetings, preaching, and general pastoral care. The resident will also have opportunity to explore vocational clarity, discerning how one’s particular set of gifts can be used faithfully in the context of parish ministry. This program begins on May 20, 2013 and goes to August, 2015. Applicants must be on track for ordination in the PCUSA.
