

DANIEL D. PIOSKE
64 Mercer St., SBN 257
Princeton, NJ 08540

OLD TESTAMENT
(609) 240-6018
daniel.pioske@ptsem.edu

DENOMINATION: Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (Ordination Track)

EDUCATION: Ph.D., Princeton Theological Seminary, 2012 (anticipated); M.Div., Princeton Theological Seminary, 2007; B.A. (Religion and Political Science, magna cum laude), Gustavus Adolphus College, 2004.

DISSERTATION: “David’s Jerusalem: A History of Place and its Remains”

HONORS AND AWARDS: Princeton Theological Seminary: Princeton Doctoral Fellowship in Biblical Studies, 2007-2011; ASOR Heritage Fellowship for Archaeology, Summer 2009; Princeton Theological Seminary and the Evangelische Kirche in Deutschland: Goethe Institut Stipend, Göttingen, Germany, summer 2008; Princeton Theological Seminary: Master of Divinity Old Testament Fellowship, 2007; Henry Snyder Gehman Old Testament Award, 2006; Gustavus Adolphus College: George Hall Award for Outstanding Religion Major, 2004; Patricia Lindell Research Prize, 2004; Rolf and Ron Christenson Award for Excellence in Political Science, 2003.

MEMBERSHIPS: Society of Biblical Literature; American Schools of Oriental Research

TEACHING EXPERIENCE: Princeton Theological Seminary: doctoral teaching fellow, “Introduction to Biblical Hebrew,” fall 2010; instructor, “Hebrew Translation,” fall 2009, spring 2010; teaching fellow, “Exegesis of Exodus,” spring 2009; teaching fellow, “Orientation to Old Testament Studies,” fall 2008; teaching fellow, “Orientation to Old Testament Studies,” fall 2007; teaching fellow, “Introduction to Biblical Hebrew,” summer 2007; teaching fellow, “Introduction to Biblical Hebrew,” fall 2006, spring 2007.

OTHER PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE: University of Chicago Neubauer Expedition to Zincirli: square supervisor, summer 2010; Leon Levy Expedition to Ashkelon, volunteer, summer 2009; Princeton Theological Seminary: research assistant to Dennis Olson, spring 2008; research assistant to F.W. Dobbs-Allsopp, fall 2004, spring 2005; Christ the King Lutheran Church, Kendall Park, NJ, intern, fall 2005, spring 2006; Gustavus Adolphus College: research assistant to Andrew G. Vaughn, 2003-2004.

PUBLICATIONS AND PRESENTATIONS: Review of Barstad, Hans M., History and the Hebrew Bible: Studies in Ancient Israelite and Ancient Near Eastern Historiography (FAT, 61; Tübingen: Mohr Siebeck, 2008) in Journal of Hebrew Scripture, Volume 9 (2009); and George J. Brooke and Thomas Römer, eds., Ancient and Modern Scriptural Historiography - L'historiographie biblique, ancienne et moderne (Bibliotheca Ephemeridum Theologicarum Lovaniensium 207; Leuven: Peeters, 2007) in Journal of Hebrew Scripture, Volume 9 (2009); “Ugarit, History and Archaeology,” in New Interpreters Dictionary of the Bible, Vol. V, Abingdon Press, 2009: 609-701; “II Samuel 23:8-39 and the Question of Genre: Heroes, Lists, and Bakhtin” Society of Biblical Literature, New Orleans, LA, November 2009; “Memory and Biblical Historiography: Reminiscence as a Source to the Biblical Past,” American Schools of Oriental Research, Boston, MA, November 2008; “‘Lord, Revive Your Work in the Coming Years’: Memory and Recollection in Habakkuk 3,” Society of Biblical Literature, Boston, MA, November 2008.

LANGUAGES: Biblical Hebrew, Koine Greek, Ugaritic, Akkadian, Syriac, Aramaic, Modern Hebrew, French, German.

TEACHING INTERESTS: Place and Memory in the Old Testament, Books of Deuteronomy through 2nd Kings (Deuteronomistic History), Prophetic Literature and its Transmission, Hermeneutical Approaches to Biblical Literature, History and Archaeology of Ancient Israel, History and Archeology of the Ancient Near East.

REFERENCES: F.W. “Chip” Dobbs-Allsopp, Choon-Leong Seow, Jeremy M. Hutton, Dennis T. Olson (Princeton Theological Seminary).