Academic Year 2013-2014
MDiv or Dual Program

(Students must register for minimum of 12 credits per semester in order to be full-time. Normal load per semester is 13 credits, maximum permitted is 15 credits. Recommended that entering students enroll in 13 credits.)

Required Courses for Entering MDiv and Dual (MDiv/MA) students
All entering students must enroll in the following courses for the Fall Semester. (Even if you plan to request advanced placement during fall orientation, assume that you will not receive it and register accordingly.)

OT2101 - Old Testament Orientation 3 credits
TH2100 Systematic Theology (or take in Spring Semester) 3 credits
SC2101 - Speech Communication in Ministry I 1 credit

(TH2100 is offered in both the fall and spring semesters, and once the class is full (60 students), all other students must plan to enroll in the spring semester.

Course highly recommended for all entering MDiv and Dual students
CH1100 – Survey of Early and Medieval Church History 3 credits

Students with little to no background in the study of theology or philosophy are strongly encouraged to take the following course and the above recommended course, CH1100 Survey of Early and Medieval Church History, and postpone enrolling in TH2100 Systematic Theology until the spring semester.
PH1000 Basic Philosophy 3 credits

Language Track Study at PTS
If you are enrolled in Summer Language at Princeton Seminary this summer, you will want to follow your summer language course with a language-based exegesis course.
Hebrew students should enroll in OT3400 Introduction to Exegesis 3 credits
Greek students should enroll in NT3406 The Gospel of Mark OR NT3460 Ancient Artifacts, Texts and Symbolism 3 credits

If you wish to study in language-based courses and are not currently enrolled in summer language, you should enroll in either
OT1151 Hebrew or NT1151 Greek 3 credits

Electives
Enroll in any courses which do not have prerequisites and are open online. (Exception: ET3460 Theology and Ethics of Dietrich Bonhoeffer has TH2100 as a prerequisite but students who have a background in theological studies, may email Dr. Nancy Duff (nancy.duff@ptsem.edu) and request to enroll in her course. You must provide her with documentation that you have studied theology. She will take up to 10 entering students.

Looking ahead – Spring Semester!
